

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

In re:

Administrative Order 05-10

MODIFICATION OF JUDICIAL
ASSIGNMENTS FOR CHAPTER 13
CASES VENUED IN BROWARD AND
WEST PALM BEACH DIVISION AND FOR NORTH DADE CASES

In conjunction with Judge Hyman's assignment to the West Palm Beach Division, and the upcoming addition of new judges for the Miami and Fort Lauderdale Divisions, it is -

ORDERED as follows:

West Palm Beach Division

1. All West Palm Beach Division cases filed under, converted to or reopened under Chapter 13 on or after January 1, 2006, shall be assigned to Judge Hyman.
2. All West Palm Beach Division Chapter 13 cases assigned to Judge Friedman on or before December 31, 2005, will be transferred to Judge Hyman, effective January 1, 2006.

Fort Lauderdale Division

3. All Fort Lauderdale Division Chapter 13 cases filed or reopened on or after January 1, 2006, or converted to Chapter 13 on or after January 1, 2006, shall be assigned to Judge Ray until the new Fort Lauderdale judge is sworn in. Fort Lauderdale Division cases assigned to Judge Hyman on or before December 31, 2005, shall remain with Judge Hyman until the new Fort Lauderdale judge is sworn in. At that time, all of Judge Hyman's

Fort Lauderdale Division Chapter 13 cases will be assigned to the new Fort Lauderdale judge.

North Dade Cases

4. Pursuant to Administrative Order 04-10, certain Miami Division cases filed by debtors residing within certain specified zip codes in northern Miami-Dade County (the "North Dade Cases") have been assigned to Judge Ray.

5. The North Dade Case designation will terminate and Administrative Order 04-10 will no longer be effective with respect to North Dade Chapter 13 Cases filed or reopened on or after January 1, 2006. All such cases will be Miami Division cases and will be assigned to either Judge Mark or Judge Cristol.

6. All North Dade Cases filed or reopened on or before December 31, 2005, shall remain assigned to Judge Ray until the new Miami Division judge is sworn in. At that time, all of Judge Ray's North Dade Cases will be reassigned to the new Miami judge.

7. The Clerk shall serve notice on all parties of record in any pending case reassigned to another judge pursuant to this Order.

8. Unless otherwise ordered, hearings scheduled prior to reassignment, in any cases reassigned pursuant to this Order, will proceed at the time and place as scheduled, but will be conducted by the judge to whom the cases are assigned.

ORDERED in the Southern District of Florida on November 18, 2005.
